

---

On Tuesday 29 September 2026, the Dean of the Faculty of Legal, Economic and Social Sciences, Ain Sebâa, Pr. Youssef Moflih accompanied by the head of the department of Soft Skills & Communication Applied to Economics and Management, Pr. Malika Haoucha welcomed Ms. Claire Beaumont, a Fulbright English Teaching Assistant (ETA). This meeting marks the official placement of Ms. Claire Beaumont at the FSJESAS, Hassan II University of Casablanca for the academic year 2026/2027.

The second part of the meeting was held in the department office where Ms. Claire Beaumont was introduced by the department head, Pr Malika Haoucha to the faculty members, namely Pr. Sofia Achour, Pr. Soufia Filali, Pr. Hanaa Ismaili and Pr. Yassni Youness. Ms. Claire Beaumont will be accompanied by Pr. Omar Ezzaoua, the contact person, throughout her assignment at FSJESAS.

Ms. Beaumont's placement is undertaken within the framework of the Fulbright English Teaching Assistant (ETA) Program and the broader partnership between the Moroccan-American Commission for Educational and Cultural Exchange (MACECE) and Hassan II University of Casablanca. This initiative reflects a shared commitment to enhancing English-language education while fostering academic collaboration and intercultural exchange

Through her teaching and active engagement with students and faculty, Ms. Beaumont will play a valuable role in enhancing students' English-language proficiency and intercultural competence, while enriching English-language instruction at FSJESAS through the introduction of an international perspective and experience. The launch of these classes further reflects FSJESAS' commitment to expanding international academic partnerships, creating opportunities for meaningful cross-cultural interaction, and strengthening educational and cultural ties between the Kingdom of Morocco and the United States of America.